Sadie Cowan Bat Mitzvah April 26 at B'nai Zion

Sadie Cowan will become a Bat Mitzvah April 26 at B'nai Zion Congregation at 9:30 a.m. A native of Dalton, Georgia, Sadie is the daughter of Julie and Rob Cowan, sister to Max, and granddaughter of Roger and Martha Locke of Tunnel Hill, Ga. and Jo Ann and the late Bernard Cowan of Miami. Sadie is a 7th grader at Dalton Middle School where she enjoys volleyball and tennis and is on the highest honor roll in the challenge program. She is also a seasoned equestrian, an active Girl Scout who has earned the rank of Cadette, and is working on her Silver Award. Sadie is a voracious reader who enjoys concerts, traveling, and movies, and she is looking forward to her second year at Camp Ramah Darom.

An energetic member of the community, Sadie has been awarded the Rotary Club Service Above Self Award and Principals Award for her "Change 4 Haiti Project". Twice nominated by teachers for a Kohl's Kids Who Care scholarship, she also earned the Girl Scout Bronze Award for her volunteer service at the Northwest Georgia Regional Library.

As part of becoming a Bat Mitzvah, Sadie has created an intergenerational program called "Friendship Friday", which matches middle school students with residents in assisted living facilities. The "friends" gather on Fridays to play games, read books, bird watch, chat, learn technology, and more. Her hope is that "Friendship Friday" will become a community-wide program providing an opportunity for middle school age students to connect with different generations.

The Cowan family looks forward to sharing this simcha with family and friends.

Carolyn Potts Bat Mitzvah April 26 at Mizpah

Carolyn Potts is the daughter of Steve and Barbie Potts of Chattanooga, Tennessee. She is the granddaughter of Dr. Erwin R. Thal and the late Carolyn Gordon Thal of Dallas, Texas, and William and Linda Potts of Hamilton, Alabama. Carolyn's brother Will is a freshman at McCallie School. Carolyn is a 7th grader at Baylor School where she enjoys taking German and playing the flute. She also enjoys many outdoor activities and knows no fear when it comes to rock climbing.

For her Mitzvah project, Carolyn has chosen the organization Teen Cancer America. Her late uncle, Jeffrey L. Thal, was a two-time teen cancer survivor and Carolyn is committed to carrying on his legacy by raising money to help build a special place for teens to thrive while undergoing treatment. In lieu of gifts, she asks that donations be made to TeenCancerAmerica.org. The family asks that you join them in celebrating as Carolyn becomes a Bat Mitzvah on April 26. Kiddush luncheon to follow.

What Will Be Your Legacy?

Giving (tzedakah) is at the core of Jewish life. For millennia, Jewish dreamers have passed on that tradition to their children through their words and deeds. They have left their legacy in the organizations and services that have nourished us, strengthened us, guided us and taught us during our lifetimes.

You learned well from their example. Through your generosity of spirit and resources, you have continued the sacred work of repairing our world. You have fed the hungry, educated the young, uplifted the lonely, protected the persecuted, and cared for the elderly. You have fought for justice and fairness, or furthered scientific understanding. Whatever you have done, you have done with passion.

So how will you turn that passion into your legacy?

It's never too early to share your dreams and your passions with future generations. Call the Jewish Federation of Greater Chattanooga today.

COMMUNITY VOICES

It saddens us that, due to the fact that we will be moving to Atlanta at the end of March, we must resign as Federation members. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for all of your assistance, support, and hard work over the years.

Amy Bouleware, among others, has been the kindest, most patient, and most supportive of friends, there when we needed someone to turn to. Without her we could not have managed in so many ways. Everyone associated with JCC has played a special part in our lives. How can we ever say thank you for the kindnesses, from the delicious meals to the fantastic functions? The office staff (including the fantastic Edie Redish, who lights up your life when she enters the room) have all provided wonderful friendship over the years. And Michael, your leadership is responsible for it all; we wish you many more fantastic years with the JCC.

To all the wonderful friends we have made over the years, we wish you well and hope to see you again along the way. My grateful thanks to the rabbis as well, who have taken the time to visit Leonard and me, bringing with them so much pleasure and hope.

With appreciation,
Val and Leonard Chill

The family of Alice Goss-Morgan would like to express their deepest appreciation for the outpouring of support from the Federation staff and community on the loss of Frederick Jones, beloved father, grandfather and uncle.

HADASSAH NEWS

HADASSAH

New and Noteworthy at Hadassah

by Judy Sachsman
Past President

In conjunction with the American Heart Association, Hadassah hosted a heart-healthy program and lunch called "Every Beat Counts." Kim Enoch and Emily Fuller, of the American Heart Association, joined Allen Lewis, Director of Cardiac Rehabilitation at Memorial, as speakers. A special thank you to Elaine Winer for coordinating this event.

Thank you to Beth Lowe and Merav Balazs for hosting the Young Leaders wine and cheese get-together at Brix Nouveau. It was an event that set the tone for future meetings of this important Hadassah group.

Sandy Tabakin will chair a program on human trafficking on Monday, May 12 at the JCC at 7 pm. Two FBI agents will discuss trafficking activity, the hub of which is the Atlanta area and along Interstate 75. There is no charge to attend this event and a dessert reception will follow. Members are encouraged to bring friends and other young women to this educational event.

"Action Alert: Women Make the Difference" is the theme of the Southern Region Spring Conference, April 5-6, at the Marriott Cool Springs in Franklin, Tenn. Chattanooga's shlichah, Hadas Peled, will present a program on "Influential Women of Israel" along with the shaliach from Nashville. Barbara Oxenhandler will be recognized as Woman of the Year in the Chattanooga Chapter. Contact Dana Waxler (706) 820-4013 if you are interested in attending this conference or the National Convention, Inspire; Imagine; Ignite, which will take place in Las Vegas July 21-24.

Every Beat Counts, March 6, JCC

L-R, Event coordinator Elaine Winer joins Every Beat Counts speakers Kim Enoch, Allen Lewis, Emily Fuller, and chairwoman Sandy Tabakin. Below, participants get into the swing of stretching for health.

Beautiful Hadassah certificates designed for every occasion are available for contributions to JNF environmental projects including tree planting and water conservation. New Hadassah Chai certificates start at $18. Millie Lander is available to assist members with certificates and Paula Israel is now in charge of a wide assortment of Hadassah cards (706-935-3156). Hadassah thanks Cindy Powell, former card chair, who will be moving away from Chattanooga.

Hadassah has developed a new giving plan called "Chai Society." Donors Choose Where To Make Your Impact. A monthly donation of $15 or $30 (or an annual donation of $180 or $360) will support Hadassah's amazing projects in Israel involving healthcare, medical research, youth projects, and education. Millie Lander (698-1613) can supply interested members with more information.

Sandy Tabakin, current president of Chattanooga Hadassah, has just become a Founder, joining the ranks of Amelia Allen, Pris Siskin, Dana Waxler, and Fillis Frank (of blessed memory). Anyone interested in stepping up her contribution to the next level is encouraged to explore this option with Dana Waxler.

Beth Lowe has joined Riki Jordan Odineal and Arlene Dees in becoming an annual member of Hadassah. As newcomers arrive in Chattanooga, please bring them to Hadassah events so they can become part of this dedicated group. Remember: every lifecycle event deserves the gift that endures: membership in Hadassah.

Thank You

When Hadassah collected contributions in memory of Rhonda Seeber, members not only raised the $1,000 required for a Perpetual Yahrzeit in the Chapel of Hadassah Hospital, they also raised enough to purchase a piece of medical equipment for the hospital in her memory.

Passover at Chabad of Chattanooga

Sticky Little Fingers Usher in Passover Season
Children prepare with Matzah Bakery

Sunday April 6, 1:30

With the approach of Passover, Chabad is in full pre-holiday-madness mode. So much has to be done—house cleaning, Seder preparation, shopping and more shopping.

This year children will play a special role in ushering in the Passover holiday with the Model Matzah Bakery.

The traditional matzah bread was round and hand baked, in contrast with the uniform, store bought, square variety. The eating of the Matzah is one of the most fundamental mitzvot of this holiday, commemorating the haste with which the Israelites left Egypt, not allowing enough time for their dough to rise and resulting in the unleavened Matzah.

The entire Jewish community is invited to this unique event which brings children together for a hands on, exciting educational journey exploring the history and significance of Passover and Matzah. In fact each participant will begin with stalks of wheat which are winnowed and then ground, and the drawing of special well-water. Finally, with the donning the full Matzah-Baker-Master Regalia—hat, apron, floury face and all—we will bake a spectacular Matzah!

The Matza Bakery provides children with a very fun experience but also helps develop a profound appreciation for the holiday. Today, more than ever perhaps, parents appreciate opportunities like this to share their Jewish heritage, tradition, and faith with the next generation.
